

Endoscopic surgery in children & neonates: to be or not to be.

Symposium May 10-11th 2010.

Program

May 10th 2010

Hands-on Course 20 persons

8-9 am: - Welcome and Registration Hands-on course

9-12 am: hands-on course

- Basic Suturing
- Meckel's diverticulum
- Diaphragmatic Hernia Model
- Esophageal Atresia Model
- Single Port Surgery
- Virtual Reality Training

12-1 pm: Registration Symposium

1-5.30 pm Symposium Endoscopic Surgery in Children & neonates: to be or not to be.

Thoracoscopic procedures

- lobectomy
- esophageal atresia
- aortopexy
- biopsies/malignancies

2.30-3 pm Tea Break

Laparoscopic procedures

- gastro-esophageal reflux
- pyloromyotomy
- duodenal atresia
- biliary atresia
- malrotation
- Hirschsprung disease
- anorectal malformation
- malignancies

General Discussion

5.30-6.30 pm Drinks

7.30 pm Dinner

May 11th 2010

Endoscopic Surgery in Children & Neonates: to be or not to be.

8-9 am Welcome and Registration

9 am -1pm: Symposium Endoscopic Surgery in Children & Neonates: to Be or Not to Be.

- introduction endoscopic surgery in children and neonates
- training in endoscopic surgery
- research in endoscopic surgery
- overview of endoscopic surgery in urology, cardiothoracic surgery, ENT, orthopedics, neurosurgery, gynecology

10.30-11 am Coffee Break

- impact of endoscopic surgery on health care
- the anesthesiologist's perspective
- the neonatologist's perspective
- the hospital management's perspective
- the health care insurance's perspective
- the government's perspective
- the patient's perspective

Closing remarks

1-2 pm Lunch Break

2 pm Opening "Center of Excellence Endoscopic Surgery in Children & Neonates".

2.30 pm Guided tour OR1 Wilhelmina Children's Hospital

3 pm Opening & Reception Coffee Chamber WKZ

Senate Room Academie Gebouw University of Utrecht, Domplein Utrecht

4.15 pm Oration Professor David C. van der Zee

5.15 Reception